

You Can Get There From Here

Within 15 miles of town, there are more than a dozen city and Forest Service trailheads linking you to well over a hundred miles of stunning Beartooth Mountain scenery, and fewer than half of them are restricted to foot-or-horse traffic only. So whether you're on foot, horseback, two tires or four, there's a trail here that's calling your name.

For detailed descriptions of the trails and easy directions to trailheads, visit www.BeartoothTrails.org

① NICHOLS CREEK

I can see town from here! About 300 yards from the car, take the detour to your right for about ½ mile. The views are awesome. Hike: ■ Bike: ◆

② ③ SILVER RUN/INGLES CREEK

See map for a detailed information.

④ WILD BILL LAKE

Best kid-fishing pond ever! (Kids fishing, not fishing for kids!) Wheelchair accessible + picnic tables + lots of fish = Afternoon Bliss. Hike: ● Bike: ●

⑤ BASIN LAKES TRAIL

Great way to cool down! ½ mile in there's a waterfall in such a narrow canyon, it's 20° cooler than everywhere else. Hike: ◆ Bike: ◆◆

⑥ TIMBERLINE LAKE TRAIL

This trail goes through an '08 burn, so be prepared for not much shade. But the lakes are pretty and full of Brookies! Hike: ◆ Bike: ⓧ

⑦ SENIA CREEK TRAIL

Another steep one! Climb about 2,000' in 2½ miles, straight up to the Red Lodge Creek Plateau. Hike: ◆◆ Bike: ⓧ

⑧ WEST FORK TRAIL

This one's got everything! Waterfalls, nice-n-easy walk, amazing views, quick afternoon jaunt or 3-day over-the-top loop. Hike: ■ ◆ Bike: ⓧ

① BEARTRACK TRAIL

This one is up, up, up! to Silver Run Plateau at over 10,000'. Take Timberline or Silver Run/Ingles Creek Trails down. Hike: ◆◆ Bike: ◆◆

② PARKSIDE REC. TRAIL

Easy to lose, but hard to get lost on. Super family-friendly, past campgrounds and along the creek for 2 easy miles. Hike: ● Bike: ■

③ HELLROARING LAKES TRAIL

The road's a hair-raising 6 miles—high clearance vehicles only—but you can walk forever from here! Hike: ■ Bike: ⓧ

④ LINE CREEK PLATEAU TRAIL

The trail's mostly flat, but you feel every foot of elevation gain when you're at 9,500'! Be ready for wind & rain! Hike: ■ Bike: ■

⑤ GLACIER LAKE TRAIL

The road getting to the trailhead can be rough, but this steep 1½-mile beauty of a trail never, ever disappoints. Hike: ◆ Bike: ⓧ

① LAKE FORK TRAIL

Probably the best-loved trail around! You're never far from the creek, but stay sharp! Moose love this trail, too :-). Hike: ■ Bike: ⓧ

① FACE OF THE MTN. TRAIL

Awesome trail! This could've been the Beartooth Highway; 1919 plans for a road over the Plateau started here. Hike: ◆◆ Bike: ◆◆

① WILLOW CREEK TRAIL

Great biking trail! Start at RLM's lower lot and drop 800' in 2 miles. Don't miss the cave near the bottom! Hike: ● Bike: ■

① ROCKY FORK TRAIL

Perfect for kids! This easy 3-mile walk showcases the beauty of Red Lodge and our stunning Beartooth Front. Hike: ● Bike: ●

Special thanks to Beartooth Recreational Trails Association, a non-profit group dedicated to promoting non-motorized trails in the Red Lodge area. To volunteer or stay up-to-date on all the projects they have going on this year, sign up for their newsletter at www.BeartoothTrails.org.